

Exclusive show offers up for grabs

Visitors to Harrogate International Nursery Fair are guaranteed a great return on investment this year as numerous exhibitors are pulling out the stops with some fantastic exclusive show offers. Buyers can save £00's by placing orders at the show – see the table below – and we will be adding to these continually as they come in.

If you haven't already, don't forget to register online for free entry – and if you have new colleagues who haven't attended Harrogate before, don't forget to forward this email to them. www.nurseryfair.com

No more mess

Tidy Freaks are innovative lively in-car character bins guaranteed to keep parent's back seats litter free. Loved by children (and parents!) they make great travel companions and keep cars free of mess. Don't miss the company's exclusive show offer – 10% discount for independents.

Gerry rocks

The fully portable Sleepybobo – 'Gerry the Giraffe' is a beautiful addition to any home, a perfect gift for baby showers and a 'must have' for new parents. Compatible with most car seats, rockers, bouncers, Moses baskets and cribs, Gerry gently rocks and soothes babies. Gerry has several inbuilt features with safety paramount, plus speed setting, lock battery indicator and timer. Other products in the range include a comfort blanket, plush toy, interactive toy, sensory book, pacifier clip, neck extension (for cribs), a bespoke carry bag and key ring.

One of a kind

OmniO next generation stroller – which was introduced at Harrogate in its prototype stage last year – is ready to take the market by storm. Including unique features such as highly manoeuvrable Onmi wheels; an ultra compact, lightweight and travel-friendly design, the pushchair can be folded down to backpack proportions so that parents can wear it comfortably, or easily stow it away within the smallest airline cabin bag. Designed from six months+ the functional design is set to transform the way parents contend with typical everyday travel scenarios.
