Beautiful books for babies

A new exhibitor to Harrogate this year is not only bringing its beautiful range of photographed books and stationery for parents and children, but is offering visitors to its stand a free gift too!

Ryland Peters & Small has a wonderful selection of products allowing parents to capture special moments in their child's life with baby journals and a wide variety of kids' activity books. These are popular gifts for new parents as well as self-purchases for those looking for some inspiration or activities to do with their children. Visit stand B14 for more information.

A sticky solution

Brighten up a child's bedroom with a range of colourful stickers from Bright Room Designs, including decorative wall, window, chalkboard, height chart stickers, plus some gorgeous Storage Solutions to match its sticker designs. Forwalls stickers are unique and can change the style and atmosphere of any little boy or girl's room. Visit stand Q76 for more information.

Huggable sucker

Don't miss the latest new Pacimals from TrendyKid – huggable animal toys with a built in soother that has been approved by orthodontic and lactation consultants. A silicone base is sewn into the top of the toy's head and the supplied Pacimals soother securely attaches to this. However, the toy also comes with a universal adaptor allowing parents to attach almost any brand of soother. Visit stand Q57 for more information.

A warmer wipe

Parents who prefer the convenience of baby wipes needn't subject their little ones to a cold shock at nappy changing time anymore, thanks to the latest Ultimate Wipes Warmer from Prince Lionheart which will gently warm most brands of disposable wipes without browning or drying them out.

For those not keen on disposable wipes, Warmies Wipes Warmer has been designed to warm Prince Lionheart's Warmies Reusable Bamboo Cloth Wipes which are made from bamboo, fully biodegradable and naturally antimicrobial, making them more environmentally friendly than regular disposable wipes. There is even a night light on each unit to help during night time nappy changes. Visit stand C31 for more information.
