

Don't lose your stand space for 2013 – re-book now!

Just over a month after the doors closed on what proved to be one of the most successful Harrogate Nursery Fairs on record, the organising team is delighted to open priority bookings for exhibitors to reserve their previous stand space, or request a new position, for the 2013 show which takes place from 24th to 26th March 2013.

Adrian Sneyd, Harrogate Nursery Fair organiser, comments: “We were completely overwhelmed with demand for exhibition space this year and as a consequence had to open additional halls in order to accommodate every company wishing to exhibit. With over 200 exhibitors this proved to be the biggest Harrogate Nursery Fair ever and post show response from both exhibitors and visitors was incredibly positive all round.

“We have already received numerous enquiries from companies wishing to participate next year and additionally companies requesting moves to new locations. However, it is only fair that previous exhibitors have the opportunity to re-book their space or request a new location before opening the doors to other companies.”

As an exhibitor at the 2012 Harrogate Nursery Fair you have until 15th June 2012 to re-book your space, or request an alternative position. After this deadline space will be opened up to all companies and allocated on a first-come-first-serve basis.

Booking is quick and easy and can be done online HERE – so sign up today to avoid disappointment.
