

Be inspired

Welcome to this week's Harrogate Nursery Fair Newsletter. As momentum builds towards the show, we're delighted to bring you the latest news and product highlights from our exhibitors. Each week, we'll be shining a spotlight on three companies attending the fair, giving you a chance to discover their newest launches, best-selling products and what they have planned for the show. Whether you're a retailer looking for fresh ideas, new suppliers or the latest industry trends, our weekly updates will help you make the most of your visit. We hope you enjoy this week's featured exhibitors and feel inspired by what they have to offer.

Peruvian perfection

Kukuli brings over 30 years of experience creating premium baby and childrenswear in Peru. The company's collection combines exceptionally soft Peruvian Pima cotton with delicate computerized embroidery, beautiful detailing and carefully crafted finishes. It creates distinctive garments designed for comfort, quality and timeless style, from newborn essentials to clothing for young children. Kukuli also offers private-label manufacturing for retailers and brands seeking premium materials, flexible production and reliable craftsmanship.

Discover the quality of Peruvian Pima cotton and explore opportunities to work directly with a trusted Peruvian manufacturer.

Design-led collection

The Babymore team is thrilled to be back at Harrogate to showcase its exciting 2027 collection. The company's ever-popular furniture range is expanding with new cribs, cot beds, room sets and chairs, alongside the latest additions to its growing travel collection, combining contemporary colours with timeless favourites. Designed with style and durability in mind, the new products reflect Babymore's move towards a more refined and design-led collection, while continuing to offer products developed for modern family life. Babymore looks forward to welcoming customers, both new and old.
