

Spoilt for choice

With five halls packed with the latest innovations and designs in baby products, retailers and buyers attending the 2023 show are set to leave Harrogate International Nursery Fair with orders placed to fulfil expectations for the coming year.

Once again there are over 100 exhibitors attending, and of these more than 30 are new to the show – so visitors are guaranteed to find products that are exciting and a bit different.

Don't forget to visit the website at www.nurseryfair.com where you will find a full list of exhibitors.

Cosy and convenient

Bloomsbury Mill is a trusted and award-winning children's and baby brand, specialising in fun and engaging children's bedding and super soft organic baby essentials. The company's dedication to quality, creativity, and sustainability has earned it well-deserved accolades, making Bloomsbury Mill a cherished choice for parents seeking delightful and cosy products that bring real happiness to childhood.

A highlight at the fair is its organic baby collection, a testament to Bloomsbury Mill's commitment to providing the very best for little ones at an affordable price point and also its award-winning toddler nap mats, a perfect blend of convenience and comfort for on-the-go napping.

Visit Bloomsbury Mill on Stand Q31

Simplifying life

BabyBjörn is a Swedish family-owned company that manufactures safe and well-designed products for babies and parents worldwide. It is passionate about simplifying everyday life, nurturing closeness, and helping families with young children to enjoy each precious moment. The company's range of high-quality products includes baby bouncers, carriers, travel cots, kitchen, and bathroom. Safety being the number one priority, all its products are ergonomically designed to provide the baby with the right support from newborn to toddler.

Visit BabyBjörn on Stand B28

100% recycled

Finnsøn is a new multi-award winning sustainable changing bags and accessories brand, Scandinavian inspired with sustainable lifestyle products for the modern family, designed by parents for parents. The collection comprises of luxury baby changing bags, change mats and accessories made exclusively from 100% recycled materials in accordance with strict environmental and ethical standards.

Since launching in 2022 Finnsøn has won five awards collectively across the Junior design awards, Project Baby, City Kids Green awards and The Recycling Heroes award. Including 'best changing bag design' and 'best sustainable baby brand'. Finnsøn is now stocked with a select number of key retailers in the UK.

Visit Finnsøn on Stand C39

