

Ones to watch

The finalists of the Baby Products Association's 2019 Concept & Innovation Awards have been announced and four innovators have been invited to attend Harrogate International Nursery Fair to present their product ideas to the UK nursery industry.

Visitors attending Harrogate can see these finalists first hand at the show in Hall Q – click HERE for more information.

Also, if you are attending the show don't miss the latest exclusive offers (available only to visitors) – Show Offers.

Cool and contemporary

Tutti Bambini is delighted to showcase the latest additions to its high-quality nursery furniture range

– Roma & Siena. The Roma collection features a classic sleigh style with plenty of storage and available in three stunning finishes. Siena is a contemporary range with a Scandinavian feel and clean lines in fresh white with solid natural beech wood detailing.

Both ranges will be available to order at the show along with the company's existing product range. Lots of offers available for both new and existing customers, so pop along and have a look.

Comfortable and compact

Hauck's Malibu 4 Trio Set is deal for parents who want something to last from birth to pre-school. Even the smallest ones will feel secure in the cosy carrycot or infant car seat, both of which fix directly onto the chassis without adapters. The seat unit adjusts down to a lying position so the child will be comfortable in any position and a large extendable canopy offers protection against the weather. The Zero Plus Comfort infant car seat with its patented side-impact protection and 3-point harness, guarantees maximum safety and for small babies there is a removable head protector and seat minimizer offering extra comfort. The Malibu 4 folds compactly making it suitable for any trip.

Collaborative collection

For the first time, Diono will exhibit at Harrogate alongside We Made Me. This exciting and innovative babywearing brand was acquired by Diono in 2017 and the two brands will come together at the show. Diono's 2019 collection includes an enhanced range of car seats and wheeled goods, all lovingly engineered for the joy of the journey.

We Made Me will show its range of award-winning carriers and slings alongside a new collection of layette.
