

The one thing you can't afford to miss in Harrogate

The atmosphere! While the products and launches are, of course, a huge draw, it's the buzz of being surrounded by the entire nursery sector that makes Harrogate so special. It's the only place where the whole community comes together, and that energy, combined with the opportunity to discover the next big product for your business, is something you simply can't replicate online.

With just two weeks to go, everyone in the UK industry is gearing up for their very own home show and one thing you can be assured of is a very warm welcome!

Playful prints

Launching at Harrogate this October, Tutti Bambini introduces three beautiful bedding and décor collections: Good Life, Tiny Tales, and Love Cats. Thoughtfully designed for modern nurseries, each range features playful prints, soft muslin textiles, and natural tones drawn from the outdoors. These new launches mark a shift towards elevated interior styling for little ones — with bedding, decor, cushions, toys and more that blend seamlessly into stylish homes. Whether whimsical or neutral, these collections are designed to spark imagination and support cosy, calming routines from day one.

Greater protection

Cozy N Safe is proud to introduce the new Comet PLUS 360 i-Size car seat. The next evolution of its award-winning all-stage seat.

Designed for children 40-150cm (approx. from birth to 12 years). The Comet Plus 360 i-Size keeps all the loved features of the original version, including free and uninterrupted 360° rotation, extended rear-facing up to 105cm (approx. 4 years), four recline positions, and a plush newborn insert. Now upgraded to the latest R129 i-Size safety standard, it delivers even greater protection and reassurance for families. Practical, comfortable, and built to grow with the child, the Comet plus 360° i-Size makes every journey safe and simple.

Carry in comfort

Ergobaby, the award-winning creator of ergonomic baby carriers, strollers, bouncers and more, continues to make parenting a little less hard and a little more amazing with its latest arrival, the Upsie Toddler Sling Carrier. Designed for children aged six months to four years (7.7kg-20.4kg), Upsie's wide, ergonomic bucket seat provides optimal support with full knee-to-knee coverage, guaranteeing a hip-healthy position and total comfort. It evenly distributes baby's weight (made easy with the help of a handy positioning aid) which, alongside the padded, adjustable shoulder strap, also ensures comfort for the wearer - giving full arm mobility and a customisable fit for all body types.
