New and returning brands confirmed for 2021

March 2021 seems a long way off, but companies in the nursery industry are already proactively looking ahead to next year by confirming their return to Harrogate International Nursery Fair from 28th to 30th March 2021.

To name a few firm favourites already looking to return and support the show again will be BabyStyle, Bebecar, Cuddleco, Ickle Bubba, Mee-Go, Peg Perego, Silver Cross and Venici, which are among the larger brands already confirmed.

New for next year these will be joined by other big brands Dorel,

Cosatto, Cybex, and just recently Renolux which are returning, as well as some new smaller companies jumping on board to ensure they secure favourable spots at the show.

Adrian Sneyd, show organiser, comments: “After such trying times this year we are naturally delighted to welcome back all companies in our attempt to deliver the industry a much awaited show next year, so we are especially pleased that exhibitors which haven’t attended the show for a while such as Dorel which last exhibited six years ago are now returning again. I know that retailers will be excited to have the opportunity to see product ranges and new launches from all of our exhibitors when they can attend again next year. It will be a welcome return to face-to-face business after such a long period without industry events and trade shows and it is good to have a clear focus going forward.”
