

Baby buyers' bonanza!

Harrogate International Nursery Fair 2014 is fast approaching and nursery retailers and buyers are in-store for a treat with all of the favourite, well-known brands attending as well as some exciting newcomers to the market with a diverse variety of fabulous new baby products.

This is the UK's only nursery trade show providing a great opportunity to explore product launches for the autumn and winter season. The beautiful Yorkshire town of Harrogate is a delightful location, with competitively priced hotels and restaurants, so it's hardly surprising that many visitors enjoy spending a few days to make the very most of their stay and enjoy some of the hospitality on offer too. This year there will be an interesting line-up of speakers with a brand new seminar programme, a Party & Awards night; plus a free networking and drinks evening.
