

Facebook winner announced

The winner of the Harrogate International Nursery Fair Facebook competition was announced today as Susan Pellet of Ann's Pram Centre in Petersfield. Susan and a guest will enjoy a fabulous evening of entertainment at the BANTA Awards Dinner and will have a free night's stay courtesy of The Majestic Hotel, Harrogate. Many thanks to Mice Concierge (the show's official partner) for organising this wonderful prize – and if you still haven't booked your accommodation for the show, do get in touch with them on +44 (0) 1438 908770 – the team has negotiated some great hotel and restaurant rates in Harrogate.

More than a chew

Cheeky Chompers, home of the award-winning Neckerchew, is showcasing its brand new Comfortchew at Harrogate – a luxurious attachable teething comforter to stimulate babies and soothe tender gums made from super-soft jersey cotton, cuddle fleece and ribbons, bringing together baby's four favourite essentials – comforter, teether, tags and the feel of their favourite teddy. It attaches to the baby, car-seat, pram or pacifier. Visit Cheeky Chompers on Stand H1.

Brushing up well

Pourty is excited to be launching the Pourty Cradle Cap Massage Brush. This clever product works amazingly well on babies and toddlers, gently and effectively eliminating cradle cap and keeping it at bay. Its bristles are soft yet firm, massaging the cradle cap away safely. Parents who hate cradle cap will love this revolutionary brush which is completely unique in the UK market. RRP is an affordable £5.95 - available now with an eye-catching PDQ box. Pourty will also be demonstrating its award winning Pourty Pouring Potty, Flexi-fit Toilet Trainer and Up Step in a vibrant new colour. Visit Stand H13.

Grey sheep of the family

SweetDreamers, the brand behind the famous ewan the dream sheep, is thrilled to unveil a new 'fleece' for its multi award winning sleep aid. Introducing 'ewan the grey', the newest member of the flock, who will officially launch at Harrogate Nursery Fair. SweetDreamers certainly don't miss a 'bleat' as grey is undoubtedly the must have colour for 2015. There has been a significant increase in popularity for grey especially amongst new parents, making this the best time to introduce the newest member of the SweetDreamers flock. Gender neutral and calming, grey is a fantastic colour theme for a nursery, the perfect place for ewan. Visit 'ewan the grey' on Stand H18

Model baby

Introducing Shnuggle's new model for the fabulous Shnuggle baby bath. This is gorgeous seven month old Willow who was chosen out of hundreds of babies in response to Shnuggle's call out for baby models. Willow has Down Syndrome and Sinead, co founder of Shnuggle said "Not many people know this, but our first child, Rose has Down Syndrome, and was part of the inspiration for starting Shnuggle in the first place. Working with Willow and her Mum for the day was an amazing experience, and it brought back memories from when Rose was a baby."

The Shnuggle bath is cleverly designed with a clever "Bum Bump" in the bottom to prevent babies from slipping forwards, and a reclined back that support young babies at stage 1, then encourages them to start sitting when they are ready, for stage 2. Visit Shnuggle on Stand H2.
